The overall extent and key areas are repository-provided provisional envelopes. Corridors, nodes and land use are directional design only.

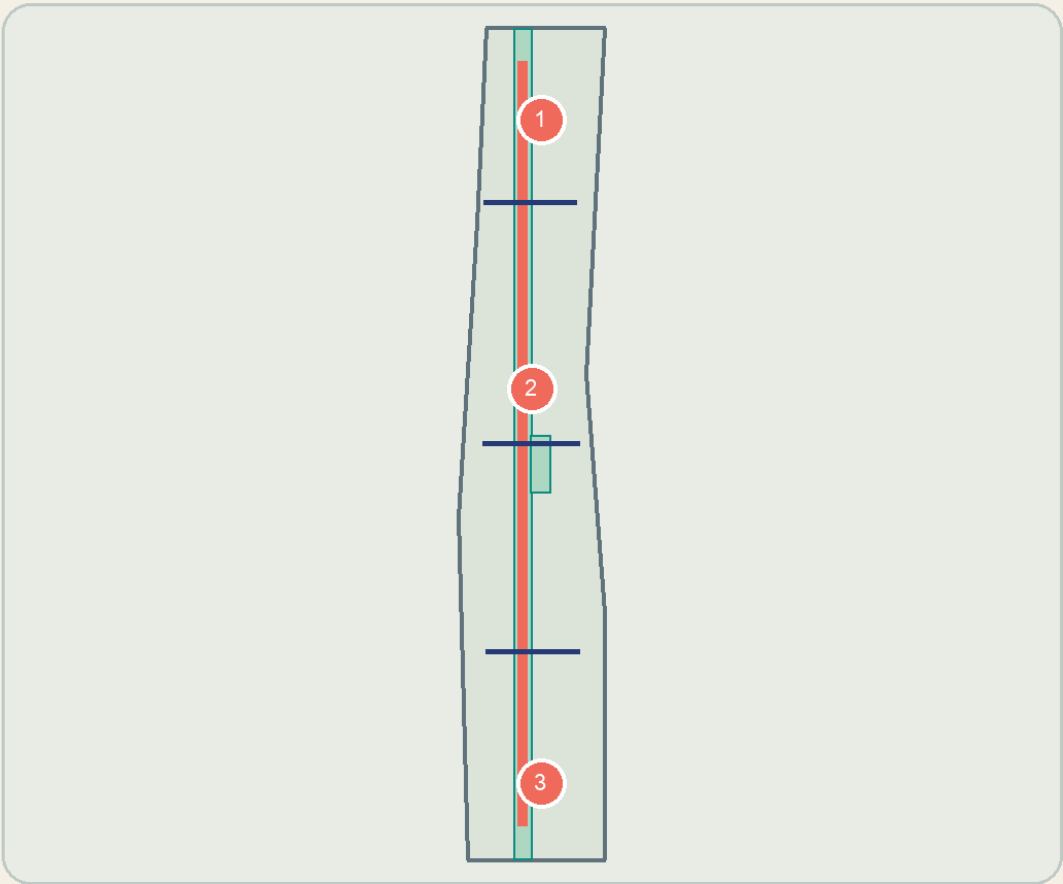

Civic Studio is not a spectacle. It is an accountability process for AI-mediated content before it enters urban life. The three districts divide responsibilities while the Jing-Zhang heritage corridor provides a public narrative and feedback interface.

The overall extent and key areas are repository-provided provisional envelopes. Corridors, nodes and land use are directional design only.

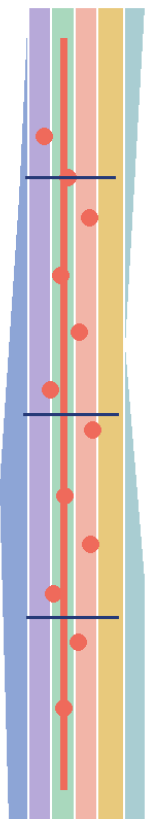

The announcement describes about 43.6 km² for coordinated research, about 11.4 km² for overall design, and about 368.4 hectares across three key areas. Only these task scopes and approximate areas are announcement facts; package polygons are provisional rough envelopes.

A Story Rail links three civic studios. A Zhongguancun service wing supports law, rights, finance and distribution; a Xiaoyue River testing wing hosts low-speed and public-space prototypes. Twelve frames are services that can be paused, revised and withdrawn.

URBAN ROLE

Before urban release, tools pass provenance, red-team, accessibility and human release gates.

NEXT GATE: OFFICIAL EXTENT + SITE SURVEY + OWNER + PUBLIC REVIEW

02 AI ORIGIN | CO-CREATION

URBAN ROLE

Translate university capacity into public tools that schools, communities and creators can use and challenge.

03 DAZHONGSI | CIVIC PREMIERE

URBAN ROLE

Premiere is not promotion: it is a public interface for review, appeal, correction, credit and withdrawal.

NEXT GATE: OFFICIAL EXTENT + SITE SURVEY + OWNER + PUBLIC REVIEW

Zhongzhiyuan tests trustworthy media tools; AI Origin translates university capability into community-usable tools; Dazhongsi turns content consumption into public review, rights services and creator translation. All three must be redrawn after official extents and field evidence arrive.

Three industry tests cover provenance, accessibility and safety red-teaming. Nine public scenarios cover heritage, community, education, talent, civic culture, rights, public explanation, local businesses and low-speed devices. Personas are design lenses, not surveyed demographic segments.

Six concept land-use categories form a complete partition and nine building footprints express spatial needs. Because existing buildings, ownership and structural conditions are missing, the proposal makes no retain, renovate or demolish decision for any real building.

WALK FIRST | CYCLE LINKS | TRANSIT CONNECTIONS | ACCESSIBLE AND NON-DIGITAL FALLBACKS

01 CONTINUOUS WALK + PAUSE

Every digital scene has a steward, printed explanation and exit route.

02 TRANSIT CONNECTION

Directional only; station exits, streets and flows require field verification.

03 BLUE-GREEN INTERFACE

Concept connection only; no statutory blue-green control line is claimed.

04 SAFE STOP

On failure, complaint or loss of human takeover, stop the scene and retain non-digital service.

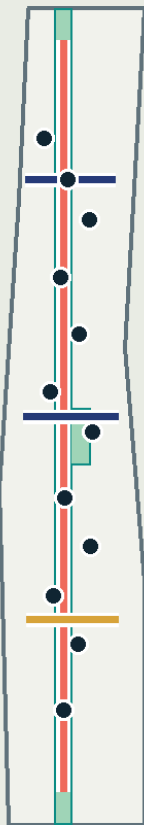

The Story Rail and three cross-links form a directional walking, cycling and transit-connection network. Every digital guide, gate or intelligent facility retains human takeover, printed explanation and an accessible non-digital route.

Projects start with low-cost prototypes: credentials rules, a public review desk, co-creation curriculum and rights clinic. Spatial adaptation, equipment testing and long-term venues wait until evidence, owners and safeguards are confirmed.

Phase one validates rules and services; phase two may adapt buildings and connect districts; phase three considers international residencies and stewardship. Each phase has stop conditions and no schedule is represented as a commitment.

The provisional extent recomputes to 11.41 km², with a concept green ratio of 13.5% and public-space ratio of 1.2%. All values are projected from GeoJSON and must be rerun when official polygons arrive.

Principal risks are absent official geometry and controls, no site or resident research, unknown operators and budgets, and rights, privacy and deception risks in synthetic media. The next step is not construction; it is evidence completion, field verification, co-design and professional review.
